CRITERIA
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Rate and criteria are based on the Joint Submission of Plan for Expenditure of Staffing Contempt Fines and Order, pursuant to the Coleman Court's Order, ECF No. 8381, filed on August 29, 2024. *For the classifications identified, the Rate for which the employee would be eligible would be consistent with the licensure that they possess: <table border="1"> <tr> <td>Rate A, B, C, D</td><td>Psychiatry License</td></tr> <tr> <td>Rate E, F, G, H</td><td>Psychology License</td></tr> </table>		Rate A, B, C, D	Psychiatry License	Rate E, F, G, H	Psychology License
Rate A, B, C, D	Psychiatry License
Rate E, F, G, H	Psychology License
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Current employees as of October 31, 2024, appointed to CDCR/CCHCS in an eligible classification identified above and covered by the 2009 Mental Health staffing plan, shall begin receiving payment from this differential after the first qualifying pay period. Employees appointed after October 31, 2024, to CDCR/CCHCS in an eligible classification identified above and covered by the 2009 Mental Health staffing plan, shall begin receiving this differential after the third qualifying pay period, if they meet one of the eligibility criteria below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> New civil service employee (hired from outside state service); or Current civil service employee appointed to an eligible classification; and new to CDCR/CCHCS (excluding employees from the Department of State Hospitals) who has never been appointed to one of the eligible classifications within CDCR/CCHCS; or Current (excluding employees from the Department of State Hospitals) or prior civil service employees appointed from an ineligible civil service classification to one of the eligible classifications which would be considered a change in occupation (outside of behavioral health). If the employee voluntarily terminates or is discharged, they will no longer be eligible for this differential. There will be no pro rata payment for the pay period in which they separate from CDCR/CCHCS. If an employee transfers or promotes to a non-eligible classification; or transfers or promotes to a different department, regardless of the classification they will no longer be eligible for this differential. There will be no pro rata payment for the pay period in which they separate from CDCR/CCHCS.

- If an employee transfers or promotes to another eligible classification without a break in service, they will continue to be eligible for the differential, however payments shall be cumulative for all classifications not to exceed $5,000 in total payments for Rates A, B, C and D; or $20,000 in total payments for Rates E, F, G and H.
- For the purposes of this differential, an individual shall not be eligible to receive more than $5,000 in total payments, or $20,000 in total payments dependent upon the rate criteria identified.
- Part-time and intermittent employees shall receive a pro rata share of the recruitment and retention differential based on the total number of hours worked during the completion of each qualifying pay period.
- For the purposes of counting qualifying time towards eligibility for payment of the pay differential, approved leaves of absence such as maternity/paternity leave, medical leave, FMLA or military leave shall not be considered a break in service.
- This differential shall not be subject to the grievance or arbitration processes.
- Any adjustment to this differential will be made pursuant to updated Coleman Court directive (if any), and notice will be provided to the exclusive representative of each bargaining unit impacted.
